Course Description and Learning Outcomes:

Fundamentals of Music allows the student to improve knowledge in written and aural skills in beginning music theory. Among the topics to be covered are pitch and rhythmic notation, meter, intervals, scales, chords and harmony.

1. Students will demonstrate understanding of the use of time signatures in simple and compound meters, including appropriate beaming.

2. Students will be able to recognize and write all major and minor key signatures and scales, including all three forms of the minor scale.

3. Students will be able to recognize and write all major, minor, augmented and diminished triads and their inversions.

4. Students will be able to recognize and write all five diatonic seventh chords and their inversions.

5. Students will demonstrate understanding of basic Roman numeral and figured bass analysis of diatonic triads and seventh chords.

Recommended Text:

Duckworth, William. A Creative Approach to Music Fundamentals, 10th Ed.

Belmont, Ca: Wadsworth/Thomas Learning, 2010.

There will be copies of the  $10^{th}$  edition in the book store. Older editions of the book are also acceptable.

Minimum Hardware and Software Requirements

The following hardware and software are required to participate in this online course. If you have questions about the technical suitability of your specific hardware and software setup, contact the HSU Help Desk (see How to Get Help: Technical Questions below).

1. Computer. Most late model computers have adequate processing capabilities for online courses.

2. Internet access.

- 1. If you plan to connect to the Internet from home, you will need Internet access. High speed Internet access with a cable modem or DSL is recommended. For either connection method, you will need an Internet Service Provider (ISP).
- 2. A laptop with wireless capability will provide maximum flexibility for accessing the course when on campus.
- 3. If you do not have a computer at home or work but do spend time on campus, you can use any of the computer labs during open hours.
- 3. Web browser. Free web browsing software can be downloaded from the Internet but is usually already installed on modern computers (Safari on Mac, Internet Explorer on PC).
- 4. Adobe Reader. Many of the readings for this course are in PDF format. Adobe Reader is free and can be used to view these documents.

Attendance and Online Participation:

Attendance at all scheduled class meetings is mandatory. It is imperative that students read assigned material and watch assigned videos BEFORE coming to the first class meeting of the week. Class time will be used for discussion and group practice of new skills, therefore it is important that you have some background on the week's topics to be able to fully participate.

Written Homework Assignments:

A packet containing all of the written homework assignments for the semester will be available for purchase in the bookstore. They are also posted on the course Moodle site if you prefer to print them yourself.

All homework must be done in pencil. Ten points will be deducted for work done in ink.

Homework is due at the beginning of each Tuesday class meeting.

All written homework which is handed in on time on Tuesday will be graded and ready to be picked up at the next Thursday class period. Corrections and re-writes will be allowed if the assignment is picked up at this time, and are due at the next class meeting.

Online Practice Exercises:

Each week there are assigned online practice exercises designed to increase skill and mastery of present and past topics. A verification code generated by the musictheory.net website must be submitted via email for each exercise to receive credit. Directions for generating and submitting verification codes are posted in the "Course Information" section of the Moodle site. A code for each exercise must be submitted by Sunday at 11:59P.M. to receive credit. Each exercise may be submitted a second time the following week to improve the score. The scores for the two submissions will be averaged to obtain the final score for the exercise.

Quizzes and online participation:

There will be frequent short quizzes, both on Moodle and in class, covering current and past topics. In class quizzes will only be made for illness or unavoidable personal reasons if notice is sent prior to the start of the class meeting. Moodle Quizzes will be due on Tuesdays and Sundays. The online quizzes may be taken once for the Tuesday deadline and twice for the Sunday deadline. The final score will be the total of the Tuesday score and the best Sunday score. In order to receive full credit for online participation the video lectures and/or PowerPoint presentations must be accessed.

Midterm:

Tuesday, October 25

This will be a comprehensive exam covering all material from the first half of the semester.

Final:

Tuesday December 13, 12:40am-2:30pm

This will be a comprehensive exam covering material from the entire semester.

Exam policies:

Exams missed due to illness or unavoidable conflicts will be made up only if I am notified before you miss the exam.

Grading:

Written Homework – 20% Online Exercises – 20% Quizzes and online participation - 10% Midterm - 20% Final - 30% Letter grades will be assigned as follows: A = 93 - 100% A - = 90 - 92%B + = 87 - 89% B = 83 - 86% B - = 80 - 82%C + = 77 - 79% C = 73 - 76% C - = 70 - 72%D + = 67 - 69% D = 60 - 66%F = below 60%
