Course description: MUS 385p is designed to provide the advance and intermediate piano students with performance skills necessary to develop a career as a keyboard teacher. This course will also introduce some keyboard literature issues and address them in practical way.

Format: It will include performing in class setting as well as master class situations. At least once a month you must be able to perform in the class with or without music. This is a practical class and your participation is absolutely mandatory.

Evaluation: It will depend on your participation in the class, your preparation to perform and your ability to give constrictive criticism.

Injury Preventions: Make sure you take regular breaks between practice sessions. Make sure you do stretches and shake your muscles. Make sure you tell me in case of pain and I will give you some exercises. Remember: If you have pain you are doing something wrong with your body while playing!

- Students with Disabilities: Persons who wish to request disability-related accommodations should contact the Student Disability Resource Center in House 71, 826-4678 (voice) or 826-5392 (TDD). Some accommodations may take up to several weeks to arrange. <http://www.humboldt.edu/~sdr/>
